

GOV. MAY RESIGN

Rumored at Madison That La Follette is Thinking of Giving up Senatorial Toga to Fight Railroads

(Tribune Special Dispatch.)

MADISON, Wis., June 20.—There is a feeling about the capitol today that perhaps the governor will, within the next few last days of the legislative session, send in his resignation, not as governor but as United States senator. This feeling is as apparent among administration men as in those who have always opposed him. As in all his actions, no one outside of the governor himself knows just what he is to do.

The opposition to his appointment of Mr. Haugen as one of the members of the railroad commission and the refusal of the senate to confirm that appointment is said to have set Mr. La Follette to thinking that the play of the railroads is now to be to take their fight to the commission and he feels that having been responsible for the enactment of the railroad commission legislation he will stay by, remain governor until the end of this present term, and meanwhile be close at hand to assist the commission in its investigations and prevent the railroads from gaining any points before it by preventing their side of the case in better light than the facts warrant. At the same time Mr. La Follette can make up the amount lost in salary by refusing the senate by lecturing tours.

Although the governor has not expressed himself at all on the question, it is said that there will be a conference of leaders here in a few days for some purpose they themselves do not yet know. The governor, as usual, is keeping his own councils.

U. S. INVITED TO TAKE PART IN MOROCCAN ROW

WILL ACCEPT IF OTHER POWERS DO

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, June 20.—It was announced at the state department this morning that this government has received an invitation from the Moroccan government to participate in a conference of powers upon the internal affairs of that country. Unless the invitation is unanimously accepted by the governments invited the United States will decline to participate.

French Ministers Meet.

PARIS, June 20.—A meeting of the council of ministers was held this morning. Contrary to custom no statement was issued and it is believed the Moroccan question was discussed.

STORTHING TENDER TO DETHRONED MONARCH

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

CHRISTIANIA, June 20.—The address to King Oscar, adopted by the storthing yesterday in reply to the king's letter of June 13th was made public today. While it is of a conciliatory nature it expresses the firm determination of Norway to adhere to the action taken in dissolving the union with Sweden. It says:

"What has been happening recently in Norway is the inevitable result of the combination of late political events and cannot be altered and it is certain that neither of the two people are desirous of returning to the former condition of the union. The storthing is of the opinion that it ought not to reconsider the various questions of constitution and public law that have been brought up in your majesty's note to the storthing president."

"The storthing recognizes his majesty's difficult position and does not question that he is performing his duty as he understands it. At the same time the storthing desires the peaceful carrying through of the dissolution of the union and the safeguarding of the friendship and concord of the two peoples of the peninsula. There is no desire on the part of Norway to mortify Sweden and what has happened had to happen and was merely the inevitable maintenance of Norway's constitutional rights."

"The storthing already stated that the Norwegian people do not feel any bitterness or animosity against your majesty or the Swedish people and suggests that negotiations requisite for the final settlement on the dissolution of the union with the recognition of Norway's new status and her rights as a sovereign state, be undertaken."

The address closes with a wish that the good relations of the two peoples may continue.

VIROQUA EDITOR IS MARRIED TO-DAY

Editor Ira Griffin of the Viroqua Republican was married this morning to Miss Kitty Guenther of 622 South Fourth street by Rev. Ebbinger of the German Reform church. Joseph Blumentritt of New Hartford, Minn., was best man and Miss Della Guenther, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor.

They left at 12:40 for Chicago to enjoy their honeymoon. Misses Ruth Guenther and Gladys Blumentritt were flower girls.

WILL FINISH HIGH SCHOOL OCTOBER 1

Owing to a vigorous solicitation on the part of contractors figuring on the bids the board of public works today decided to extend the time for the completion of the new high school building to October 1st, instead of August 10 as originally decided. It is claimed that considerable time will be needed in getting material here. A forfeit of $100 per day will be enforced, however, after that time.

Pays $20 For Knocking Out 8 Teeth

Because Walter Ebner assaulted Charles Renke, in a dispute about drinks in the latter's saloon on the Mormon Coulee road Sunday night, and struck him with a rock knocking out eight teeth, Ebner was fined $20 and costs by Judge Brindley this afternoon. The fine was paid.

Council Meets And Adjourns

The first council meeting last evening to consider liquor license applications adjourned without a quorum being present. Another meeting will be held this evening and the sessions will continue all week. Many of the applications for licenses have as yet not been submitted.

Census enumerators will commence work tomorrow morning.

TELEPHONE MAN DROPS DEAD

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, June 20.—S. P. Sheerin of Indianapolis, a prominent politician, and delegate to the interstate telephone convention, dropped dead in the Auditorium this morning while replying to an address of welcome.

Death was due to apoplexy. Sheerin was president of the independent telephone companies of Indianapolis and was one of the most prominent independent telephone magnates in the country. He was a heavy stockholder in many companies and was former secretary of the national democratic executive committee.

The convention adjourned out of respect and business will be curtailed to the election of officers and pressing matters.

Goodrich There.

W. A. Goodrich, manager of the La Crosse telephone company is attending the convention of telephone men and was probably at the session when the death of Mr. Sheerin occurred.

STRIKERS FOR PEACE

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, June 20.—The new strike committee appointed by the teamsters' joint council last night to negotiate with the employers for a settlement of the strike, met this morning and sent a request to John V. Farwell, Jr., asking for a conference. There is little hope entertained that the employers will consent to reopen the discussion of peace terms.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Early this morning Edward Bickett, a non-union driver of the National Express Co., was attacked at the Madison street bridge by four men with the apparent purpose of maiming him. They deliberately broke two fingers of his right hand and inflicted four serious wounds on his head. Bickett is at the hospital in a serious condition. His assailants escaped.

LA CROSSE WILL GET STATE CONVENTION PERHAPS

The mayor and members of the city council have received an invitation from the mayor and city council of the city of Toledo, Ohio, to attend the ninth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities which will be in session at the city of Toledo August 23, 24 and 25, this year.

It is announced, however, that the convention will not be attended by La Crosse representatives as the council has decided to attend the state convention later in the summer and secure this for La Crosse next year.

STRIVE TO AVERT STRIKE OF ILL. COAL MINERS

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 20.—The Illinois coal operators are in session here considering the crisis in the mining industry due to the passage of the Shot Firing bill. The sentiment is freely expressed that the miners must stand by their agreement which has a year yet to run. The operators are willing to obey the law, but insist that the miners pay the shot firing. A suspension of mining throughout the entire state is within the possibilities.

DOZEN WILL SAIL FOR U. S. JUNE 30

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

TOKIO, June 20.—A series of conferences of the elder statesmen and cabinet has been held to consider peace conditions and the selection of plenipotentiaries. It is believed the peace commission will be completed in time to sail on the Empress of India, June 30th, from Yokohama for Vancouver. It is expected the party will number a dozen. Meantime military activities will continue. Important developments in various directions are expected shortly.

LOOMIS IS INNOCENT

Taft Reaches This Conclusion, and President Will Probably Dismiss Bowen From Service

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Secretary Taft's conclusion in the Bowen-Loomis case, which was placed in the hands of the president last night, was the subject of a discussion at today's cabinet meeting. Taft holds that Loomis is innocent of any wrong doing. The general opinion is that the president will exonerate Loomis and dismiss Bowen from the diplomatic service. The decision will probably be announced this evening.

POPULAR WITH THE PEOPLE OF NORTH LA CROSSE

CAUSEWAY TO NEW NORMAL AND "HIGH"

One of the features of the proposed new causeway to the north side that appeals most to residents of the north side is that it will make the new high school and the new normal school much more convenient for north side pupils and students. If the new causeway is built, as proposed, it will not then be necessary for north side school children and those attending the normal from that section to make a circuit of the entire city to reach their destination as would be necessary under present conditions. This feature of the new causeway is not being overlooked on the north side and will do much toward furthering the project.

"Frost" in the Summertime

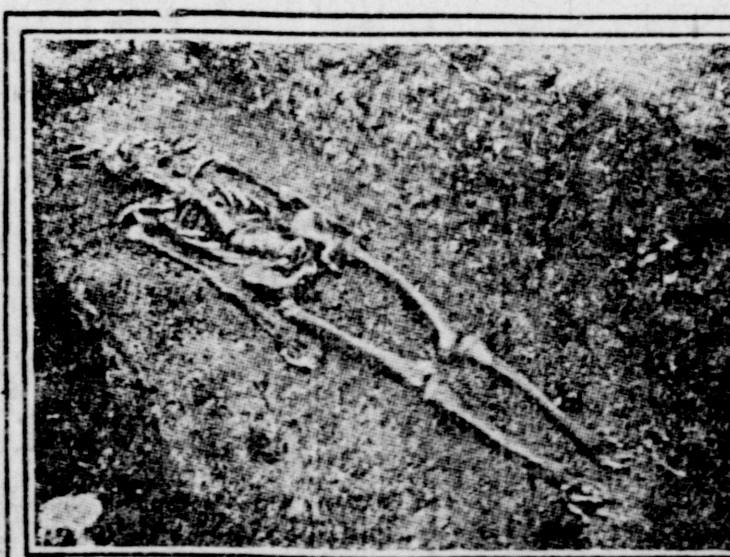

The Temple Stock company last night showed at the opera house to a small crowd, about two-thirds of the lower floor being filled. The play, "The Diamond Necklace Robbery," was an old one, seen here many times, played by other ten cent companies. The work of Mr. Charles Marston, however, was clever and was appreciated and applauded. The play throughout was one of those "curse it, the game is up" kind. The villain attempted all his dirty work with a huge breadknife and usually the character supposed to thwart his work had to tug and strain painfully to get the revolver from his pocket; in some instances this operation was so ill-timed that the villain would have had plenty of time to "murder" everyone on the stage, but being a fairly kind-hearted villain he waited patiently with knife upraised over the defenseless heroine for the hero to get out his implement of war.

"Mr. Grumps," the lawyer, was good—an idle sort of fellow. The specialties were somewhat tiresome, in one instance the audience ridiculing the act. The play, on the whole however, was fair for a cheap price production.

GRUESOME FIND NEAR OLD CASTLE

SUPPOSED SKELETON OF "SAXON NOBLE."

RELICS FOUND WITH BODY.

(New York Herald Special.)
Half a dozen human skeletons have been discovered in the grounds of High House, Windsor, England, by workmen. The place is the reputed scene of the death of the Thane Walthof, the last of the Saxon nobles, and of Archbishop Stigand. The complete skeleton here shown must have been that of a man five feet four inches or six feet six inches. The metal remains are fragments of a dagger, two spear heads, a silver twisted ring, a portion of a buckle, and an iron ferrule for a spear.

VOUGHT - BERGER COMPANY IMPROVEMENTS

The Vought-Berger company is preparing to make the improvements which they have been contemplating for the past year.

Plans have been made for a new engine room, dry kiln and other improvements and some of the partitions have already been torn down preparatory to building.

All of the departments are now connected with the office by separate phone lines.

It is not known for a certainty whether they intend to move the engine room nearer the river but for sometime this has been contemplated. At present the plant gets water from the city and if the engine room was nearer the river the firm could pump its water. This, however, would necessitate the building of a small spur of railroad for coal and fuel.

OUTING ENDS IN DEATH

Los Angeles, Cal., June 20. — E. Thais, manager of a drug store in Pasadena, and his wife were found dead in a ranch house near Glendale, several miles north of this city. A bullet in the man's forehead and one in the woman's breast show how they met their death. There were signs of a struggle in the house. The couple evidently quarreled, and one had shot the other with a revolver and then committed suicide.

Powder burns on the woman's dress indicate that she might have done the killing. The weapon used was a revolver. No reason is known for the quarrel and subsequent killing. Thais and his wife were each about 35 years old and resided in this city. They had gone to the ranch for an outing.

Looks Like Wanton Murder

Murphysboro, Ill., June 20. — While preparing to take a nap in an old carpenter shop on the farm of Henry Imhoff, with whom he lived, Thomas J. Snyder, aged 93, and at one time a prominent resident of the county, was assaulted and killed by Allen Dukes, a young farm hand. Dukes' claim of self-defense is controverted by the extreme age and feebleness of his victim, who was also blind.

No motive is known for the deed. The crime was witnessed by two small boys who were in the shop at the time. Dukes was arrested shortly after the crime was committed. He talks freely of the killing and says he was justified in taking the old man's life. The authorities believe he is insane. He served a three years' sentence from this county four years ago for passing counterfeit money.

SEEMING ENEMIES IN CHI. INVESTIGATION FRIENDS

DRISCOLL AND THORNE MEET ARE GOOD FELLOWS

Strike Settling is Their Profession

Chicago, June 20. — With the announcement that he believed the grand jury investigation of labor graft would be concluded this week State's Attorney Healy summoned several prominent business men to give evidence before the inquisitorial body. R. J. Thorne went in first and spent nearly all the morning before the jury. When Thorne came out John C. Driscoll, who had been waiting a short time, met him at the door. They shook hands, and the greetings exchanged were very cordial. It was supposed that Thorne has taken pains to inform the jury that much of Driscoll's evidence was based on hearsay.

Thorne Admires Driscoll.

"How is it that you are so friendly toward Mr. Driscoll when you have said that you became president of the Associated Teaming interests to get Driscoll out of that organization?" Thorne was asked. "I admire Mr. Driscoll," was the reply. "It is plain that you do not understand the duties of a labor commissioner, so I cannot talk further to you."

"Why," he was asked, "were you so much interested in getting him [Driscoll] out of the Associated Teaming interests?"

"Because," Thorne answered, "I did not believe in his system; I did not

What Driscoll Thinks of Thorne.

Driscoll, on being asked his opinion of Thorne, replied: "Oh, Thorne is all right." When questioned about his testimony, Driscoll declared that if the grand jury would permit it he intended to give out a full statement of his evidence. He said he would do this as soon as the jury was through with him. Driscoll then told a few of the secrets he had repeated to the grand jury.

"In 1902," he said, "there was a strike in the shipping room at Montgomery Ward & Co.'s establishment. Thorne came to me and asked me to have the matter settled. 'I commission you as our attorney to fix it up,' he said. I did settle the strike. No money was used."

Strike-Settling a Paying Profession.

"Afterward Thorne came to me and asked: 'How much do you want?' I replied that I would leave that to him. He handed me $100 for my services. I think this was one of the first strikes I settled." Driscoll was asked how much money he had made since in the settlement of strikes. "I don't care to say," he answered.

"As much as $6,000?"

"Oh, my!" he exclaimed. "I made that much from two firms."

Animals' Rights.

Truth forces the observer of nature to admit that birds and other creatures apportion the earth among themselves just about as man does. A bear has his boundaries, beyond which his fellow bear does not trespass with impunity; the wild rabbit you see on your lawn in the moonlight is the same innocent little creature you have been seeing every night all the summer time, and even the robin that gathers the early worm for his breakfast from your garden will show fight when another comes marauding on his preserve. Nor does this last a year only, for there is good evidence that the same bird will come back to the claim it staked off the year previous.

The Rat.

No place is sacred to the rat. From a sleeping man to an elephant there is nothing which he will not eat. Rats have eaten their way through a live pig and bitten off the legs of living birds. Some years ago the keepers of the London zoological gardens could not understand what made the elephants so restless, so uneasy on their feet. Investigation showed that at night the rats came out and gnawed off the thick skin growing about the nails on the monsters' feet. Apparently they must have fancied the horn of the rhinoceros, too, for regularly the keepers used to find flattened rats where the rhinoceros had been lying.

WONDERFUL ELECTRIC MACHINES AT SANITARIUM

Few people in La Crosse are aware that there is now located in this city one of the largest and most powerful static electricity machine in the world. It has just been installed in the Arnold Sanitarium, at 114 North Fifth street. The machine which was made by N. Oliver Nelson, of the Nelson Scientific Instrument company, of Chicago for exhibition at the world's fair at St. Louis, was brought to La Crosse a few weeks ago, and has now been sent up and is in operation at the sanitarium. It weighs almost a ton and is fitted with 48 inch disks, requiring a half horsepower electric motor to operate it.

The machine is used in connection with the institutes' X-ray apparatus, which are the most complete in this section of the country.

A reporter who visited the sanitarium today, had the pleasure of seeing all of the machines in operation, and their mechanism was explained to him. By means of the X-ray he was treated to a look at the bones of his hands and arms, and various other experiments were performed, showing the wonderful results obtained.

The sanitarium is fast being equipped with the most modern scientific apparatus known for the treatment of all organic and chronic diseases, and the manager who has for many years been associated with Dr. Stuart Johnson at the Chicago sanitarium, has already begun giving treatments. Light, heat, vibro-massage, X-ray and hydrotherapy are the chief agents employed and they are being used with great success.

The instruments which have been installed in the new sanitarium at the cost of thousands of dollars, will be used by the physicians of the city as well as for treatment of individuals. As the instruments here installed are so far in advance, and much greater in power than those in use at any of the local hospitals, they will doubtless be a great aid to local practitioners.

A dark room is now under construction for radiographic work.

BEST SHOW SINCE BIJOU THEATRE OPENED

"I have the best show this week, since I assumed management of the Bijou." This is the statement of Manager Gallagher of the popular vaudeville house and is also the consensus of opinion among those who attended the opening performances last evening.

The theatre was filled at both performances and the several rich vaudeville acts were greeted with applause.

Among the best features were Douglas & Douglas, the comedy entertainers whose equal have never been seen here, and the clay modeler. The artist who works in clay, Mr. McNamee, reproduces animals, Irishmen, noted characters, a "mother-in-law" and several comedy moulds, winding up with a masterpiece in clay.

A large attendance is expected this evening.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS DENY DR. PEASE

Milwaukee, Wis., June 16, 1905.

Editor La Crosse Tribune: In your issue of June 15th considerable prominence is given to the apostasy of Dr. Chas. G. Pease of New York. In this article you quote his assertion that Christian Science "is a fabric of deceit, falsehood and dishonesty, and a grave danger to the community."

For many years past our critics have admitted, informally and almost invariably that there were many good people in the ranks of Christian Science. Many eminent ministers of the gospel have given their unqualified approval of the reformatory work being accomplished by this science, among whom I will mention the Rev. E. Winchester Donald, of Boston, successor to Phillips Brooks, Dr. Madison C. Peters, pastor of the Broad street Baptist church, New York, Rev. Abram Wyman, Topeka, Kansas, and Rev. Edmund Duckworth, rector of St. James Memorial church, St. Louis.

Among the regular attendants at the church of which the writer is a member is a man who was an atheist and a physical force anarchist of the most violent type. He served numerous sentences in jail for destroying property and other misdemeanors and had even planned to burn the city of Chicago. The Chicago papers in 1894 published his picture and commented on him as a dangerous anarchist who ought to be suppressed. This man was completely redeemed through the ministry of Christian Science. He has a friend who was in much the same condition as he and today they are both in the Christian Science church, useful, peaceable and happy men. These are only samples of what is being accomplished, in greater or less degrees, every day in the week, by reason of this new light which is shed on the Scripture by the Christian Science text-book and other works by Mary Baker G. Eddy.

In more than eight hundred places of worship half an hour or more of one evening in each week is occupied in the giving of experiences and the relating of cases of healing—physical and morally—through Christian Science. In the two monthly and one weekly publications of our denomination page after page is devoted to graphic accounts of the healing of all manner of disease and sin, through the blessed influence of Christian Science, by the grateful recipients.

During the year ending June 1, 3,628 new members were added to the mother church in Boston, Mass., an increase of over eleven per cent was reported by 625 branch churches. These figures serve to show a healthy growth of a sound system of religion and ethics. Every page of the text-book, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," breathes the highest ethics and purest religion ever offered to mankind—for it is the religion of Jesus Christ, rescued from the crumbling creeds of the centuries, and reinstated with its element of spiritual healing.

Judge Wm. G. Ewing, of Chicago, recently said: "As long as the sick are healed, the lame are made to walk, the blind to see and the sinner is reformed, every shaft aimed at the fair structure of Christian Science will fall harmless." Does anyone doubt this? Surely not.

Christian Scientists can well afford to regard the puny efforts of such as Dr. Pease with complacency and pity, and every man and woman who has felt the holy influence of the Christ-healing which has been brought into their lives through the unceasing devotion and heroic labors of Mrs. Eddy, will fervently utter the prayer, "Father forgive them, they know not what they do."

Sincerely yours, JAMES PHELPS.

Reservation Saloons are Probable

ASHLAND, Wis., June 20.—There is talk of a saloon being started at Odanah, on "allotted land," it is presumed.

The supreme court of the United States having decided that it is lawful for allotted Indians to buy whisky, and for any one to sell it to them, it is argued that allotted Indians may lease their lands for saloon purposes. The supreme court decision will, no doubt, result in endless litigation. It decided some things, but many were left to be inferred.

FOWLER-SHEARER.

The marriage of Miss Mae Crosby Fowler, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Fowler, to W. H. Shearer of Barrington, Ill., will take place Thursday at the First Presbyterian church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Fowler.

NO CARDS FOR A COUPLE OF DAYS

JOLIET COMPANY LEADS IN WOODMAN FORESTER DRILL

MILWAUKEE, June 20.—In the prize drill yesterday camp No. 2,892 Joliet, Ill., Capt. F. W. Pearson, held the highest score with 98,997 points out of a possible 100 to its credit. This camp took the first prize and the championship at the 1903 encampment held in Indianapolis.

With a background of green, and with streets thronging with Foresters in variegated garbs, from the plain khaki to deep red, with the intervening shades of green, blue and bronze, Milwaukee's white city upon the lake shore presented one of the most picturesque scenes yesterday. It is estimated that there were 5,000 Foresters in camp last night when taps were sounded at 11 o'clock. It is expected that 500 more will arrive today.

Moving Headquarters.

Delegates were discussing a rumor yesterday that the headquarters of the Woodmen might be removed from Rock Island to Milwaukee. "The report is unfounded," said Chief Clerk Hawes. "We have $350,000 invested in a building there, and there would have to be great inducements to make the change advisable."

HUNGARIAN ROW ENDS IN A STABBING

KENOSHA, Wis., June 20.—John Kubla, a Hungarian, 40 years of age, was brought to the Kenosha hospital early yesterday morning suffering from three big knife wounds, and he may die. Kubla claims that he was the victim of a conspiracy among certain other Hungarians in the city. Seven men have been arrested.

POWERS DO NOT FEAR WAR IN CONNECTION WITH MOROCCAN DISCUSSION

A Conference of the Powers May Settle the Difficulty

Paris, June 20.—An international conference for the consideration of the affairs of Morocco is now practically assured as the result of the conversation between Premier Rouvier and Prince Radolin, the German ambassador, and attention is now directed to defining the scope of the conference. Details are being rapidly arranged, and the officials expect to be able to announce the plans for the conference in the course of four or five days. This result, after the severe strain which tested the diplomatic resources of both governments, has the effect of relieving the tension, the officials of the foreign office and the diplomats of the German embassy agreeing that an amicable adjustment is near at hand.

Where Rouvier Made His Point.
Although the acceptance of the conference gives a certain measure of success to German diplomacy yet M. Rouvier emerges from the controversy with the advantage of having brought Germany to exactly define the scope of the conference, and so to rid it of the objection of being a menace to French interests. Although the basis of the conference has not yet been settled it is understood that the two governments substantially agree on some of the main features involved.

Germany's Suspicions Not Justified.
Germany has suspected that France had designs on the sovereignty of Morocco, but the negotiations disclosed that France had not questioned this sovereignty. Similarly it was disclosed that France had not designed to interrupt the present territorial or political status quo of Morocco. This appears to have been one of Germany's chief apprehensions, as any change in Morocco's status quo might involve an ultimate French portecortate similar to that over Tunis.

Commercial Rights the Issue.
With both governments favorable to the sovereignty of Morocco and to her territorial and political status quo it remains for the conference to adjust the equality of commercial rights, as Germany desires this assurance from an international conference instead of through the operations of the Anglo-French agreement. Therefore, the conference is not likely to consider changes in the political status of Morocco, but rather international reforms and commercial privileges.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

People flirt with trouble too much. Every big fire develops a lot of natural born fire chiefs.

It is all right to select the lesser of two evils if you know which one it is. The way some people have of being good is worse than their way of being bad.

When people say to you when you are in trouble, "What can I do for you?" be equally considerate and say, "Nothing."

People are hard to please. If a man gets mad easily he is called "touchy," and if it takes a good deal to make him mad he is called "wooden."

It is a shame when the baby wakes up once in the night and the father is awake for ten minutes that he should lose "his whole night's rest." Isn't it, now?—Atchison Globe.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS

That Chinese Boycott Laws.

Tien-Tsin, June 20.—Two important meetings were held in the native city in connection with the anti-United States propaganda. The meetings were attended by 600 students, representing twenty-six colleges. Ten resolutions were passed, of which the most important were the following: To boycott United States goods; to stimulate Chinese manufacture; to circulate anti-United States literature; and to record results. Other bodies, representing 200 members from the commercial guilds of seventeen provinces, have signed an agreement under a mutual bond to forfeit 50,000 taels if any member is reported purchasing United States goods.

Tornado Sweeps Through Iowa.

Marshalltown, Ia., June 20.—A tornado in Hancock county blew away a public school house and a church at Duncannan tore the roof from the poor house. Many farm buildings were damaged and hundreds of windmills were blown down. The storm was general throughout Iowa. At Bagley five farm houses were blown down and three members of the family of Joseph Scaruba were injured. Trees were uprooted and much damage was done to crops. There was a terrible rain storm here, accompanied by hail.

Bartholdt Is at Berlin.

Berlin, June 20.—Congressman Bartholdt, of St. Louis, president of the International Parliamentary union to promote international arbitration, has been here for ten days looking over the material supplied by the foreign office to assist him in drafting the model arbitration treaty which the union asked him to prepare. Bartholdt will visit some of the other European foreign offices with the same object.

Stopped on the Brink of Death.

Huntington, W. Va., June 20.—Passenger train No. 4, on the Norfolk and Western road, east-bound, narrowly escaped destruction at Lost creek trestle. At the highest point in the trestle a brake chain had been securedly wrapped about the rail. Fortunately the obstruction was discovered by the engineer, who applied the emergency brakes and succeeded in stopping the train.

Mennonites Wary of the Stage.

Springfield, O., June 20.—The Mennonites at New Carlisle and vicinity are against children's day exercises, and at the Mennonite Brethren Sunday school convention adopted resolutions to that effect, on the grounds that speaking and singing and other features of the programme create a taste for the stage among the children, and should therefore not be encouraged.

Indicted Bribers Plead Guilty.

Pottsville, Pa., June 20.—David Fiest, Jacob Noll, Jr., and Joseph Biersten, three Shenandoah school directors indicted for bribery, have pleaded guilty. Sentence was postponed, as several others accused of bribery by the Tax Payers' association are to be placed on trial this week, and if convicted all will be sentenced together.

Herrshoff Boat Wins.

Dover, England, June 20.—The Herrshoff-designed, American-built composite cutter Sonya, belonging to Mrs. Turner-Farley, of Southampton, won a good race after a series of features. The course was twenty-five miles around the Varne buoy, south of the Goodwin lightship, and return to Dover. The American boat defeated the composite cutter Britomart, specially designed.

County Is Quite Aged.

Watertown, N. Y., June 20.—The 100th anniversary of the founding of Jefferson county is being celebrated this week with an "old home week" observance. The first contingent of the western delegation has arrived from Chicago, and half a thousand natives and former residents are expected from western points.

Policeman Sentenced to the Pen.

Norfolk, Neb., June 20.—Policeman Ault, who killed "Kid" English at Bonesteel, S. D., during last summer's rush to that place, has been convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to two years at hard labor in the Sioux Falls penitentiary.

President's Cousin a Britisher's Wife.

Boston, June 20.—Orme Clarke, of London, and Miss Elfrida Roosevelt, cousin of President Roosevelt, were married at Emmanuel church by Bishop William Lawrence, in the presence of a large number of prominent Bostonians.

There's a Shortage in the Cash.

Paris, Ill., June 20.—As the result of expert investigation of the books, now practically concluded, the officers of the Edgar County National bank, recently wrecked with dynamite, authorize the statement that a shortage of $7,000 has been uncovered. A further development of importance lies in the fact that the shipments of money made to grain commission houses by Bookkeeper W. W. Juntgen, now under indictment charged with blowing up the bank, are found to aggregate about $12,000 instead of $3,000, as first reported.

Secretary Hay at Washington.

Washington, June 20.—Secretary Hay arrived here from New York, and two hours later called at the White House and was at once received by the president. The secretary is expected to remain in Washington but a few days and will spend the summer at his home on Lake Sunapee, New Hampshire.

Big Oil Tank Burns.

Lima, O., June 20.—A 35,000-barrel tank containing 33,600 barrels of naphtha, valued at $5 a barrel, was struck by lightning. Less than a thousand barrels of oil could be pumped from the tank before it became too hot to handle and the loss is estimated at nearly $200,000.

Consideration for Their Brethren.

Red Wing, Minn., June 20.—Hauge Norwegian Lutheran synod committee to draft addresses to the Norwegian storting and President Roosevelt reported that out of respect to Swedish brethren of this country no address should be presented to the president.

New York Bank Closes.

Washington, June 20.—The Fredonia National bank, Fredonia, N. Y., has been closed by order of the comptroller of the currency on information received from the examiner that it is insolvent. J. W. Scofield has been appointed receiver.

Horsepower.

The difference between nominal, indicated and effective horsepower often puzzles people. Nominal horsepower is an assumed quantity, used for the convenience of makers and buyers in describing the dimensions of the engines. Indicated horsepower is the amount shown by computations of the indicator diagram. Effective or actual horsepower is the work an engine can do or the difference between the indicated horsepower and the horsepower required to drive the engine when unloaded.

American Manners.

The average American man is so much more polite, agreeable and considerate to the average woman than all other men seem rough and indifferent by comparison. In this department if in no other the American man has no rival. He is the best mannered creature in the world to the casual human being—especially female human being—he brushes elbows with in the course of the day's march. He doesn't use half as many "Thank you's" as the French or bow and smile so much, but he will give himself trouble to open doors, to hail carriages, to get up and offer his seat in omnibuses, to help bearded women on to trains and hold the baby while the mother helps off the rest of her offspring.—New York World.

Mustache Versus Music.

Anton Rubinstein had this to say in reference to women artists:

"I think ladies ought never to study music as an art. At least they ought not to take up the time of teachers who are able to teach and make true artists. And I will tell you why. There is no question but there are twenty musical ladies to one musical man, and my own experience is that they learn more quickly, have more poetry and, in fact, are more diligent pupils than men. But what is the inevitable result? When a young lady has become a perfect artist some handsome mustache comes along, and she chooses the handsome mustache in preference to art."

The Misguided Friend.

De Chappie—If there's any one nuisance I hate more than another it's a fellow who is always going around introducing people. There's Goodheart, for instance. Bouttown—What's he been doing? De Chappie—The idiot! The other day he introduced me to a man I owed money to, and I'd been owing it so long he'd forgotten all about me. Now I'll have to pay up or be sued.—London Telegraph.

Inference.

Physician—Yes, sir, my opinion is that one-half the diseases that afflict humanity are due to overeating. Friend (reflectively)—It may be—may be. Now I think of it, it is months since any one was sick at my boarding house.—New York Weekly.

Resources Exhausted.

"Waiter, this tablecloth is not clean." "No, sir. But I dunno what we can do about it. We've turned it twice already."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

LOUNGE FAILED TO WORK FOR KING

ROYAL TRAVELING LOUNGE AT THE COLISEUM, LONDON.

(New York Herald Special.)

A beautifully fitted lounge car propelled by electricity, and reserved for royalty, runs along the foyer from the street entrance to the royal box. When the king visited the Coliseum recently, an amusing contretemps arose. The lounge, which had been carefully prepared for his majesty, refused to move. The king, with his usual tact, smiled and said he would as soon walk.

MYSTERIOUS PEOPLE.

The Awesome Importance and Secretive Air They Affect.

Many people assume certain manners as they assume certain clothes and change these manners more seldom than they change their clothes. Some think it ingratiating to be perky. Others think it more graceful to be drooping and melancholy, to gaze wistfully, walk mournfully and sit as if before the baked meats of a funeral feast. But of all the people who indulge in travesty I think I get most amusement out of the mysterious people.

Bated, forever bated, is the breath of the mysterious person. Directly he comes into the room you are conscious of the presence of the unutterable and know that it will speedily be uttered into your most private ear. When he speaks to you he "takes you aside," so that none other may know that he is telling you that the weather is damp and that there is a gleam of influenza about. As he discusses with you such dreadful subjects as the price of hobnailed boots, the fluctuations of stocks and the economies of the administration his head approaches yours, his lips pout secretly, his eyes glance round warily to make sure that no one is within earshot to betray him and you, the gossamer is surely in his memory. He wishes to avoid it; he wishes—kindly wretch—to save you from it also. Meet him halfway. It is such fun to do that. He responds sensitively to the slightest mysterious encouragement.

agement and thinks he is impressing you and that you believe him to be a strange and remarkable personage and that you will go away and say: "Glad I met John Smith. Interesting man. Not every day you come across a man like that."

Many women are mysterious. Indeed, I have met more mysterious women than mysterious men. The mysterious woman is often small, but her hats are large, plumed like a herse and generally black as night. Pale is her face and languid her manner. She tries to look consumptive and succeeds surprisingly often. As a rule, she has little to say, but says it in such an awful manner that it takes on a fictitious importance and for the moment appears to be impressive. Think over your acquaintances and friends. Are not some of them mysterious, and are not they highly considered? Are not they called "interesting" on that account? There are many spurious things in the social world, but few things are more spurious than that reputation for being interesting which is gained by the mysterious manner. And half of the world at least is tricked, for everyday perkiness is called brilliance, mystery wisdom, assurance greatness and the puppet in the mask a giant in the sunshine.—Robert Hichens in Chicago Tribune.

COMMUNICATION NOT CUT BETWEEN HOKAH AND CITY

Many Farmers in City Yesterday and Today--Brownsville Bridge is Under Water

The storm which did so much damage in this vicinity Sunday night, has caused Root river to go on a small rampage. Although communication between La Crosse and Hokah is still as good as ever and many Hokah farmers were in the city yesterday and today, the river is rising rapidly and some trouble is feared. The bridge between Hokah and Brownsville is already under water, and traffic between these two towns has been cut off. It is feared that in case the river rises much more the bridge will be carried away.

Trains on Time.

Trains to this city which were all more or less delayed on account of washouts, landslides and other storm troubles, are rapidly getting back on to schedule time, and trains on the Milwaukee road were all on time yesterday. Those on the Northwestern road were also pretty well up to the time schedule.

ROBBERS BURGLARIZE COL- MAN RESIDENCE AND ESCAPE

With the careful efforts of the police and detectives exhausted and the burglars probably many miles away, H. L. Colman has announced that his residence, 144 South Fifteenth street, was burglarized and looted by robbers two weeks ago. Goods are said to have been carried away to a value of about $500.

The robbery took place on the night of June 5, since which time all news of it has carefully been concealed by the police department, who have been industriously watching the pawn shops.

Entered Through Window.

The robber entered the residence through a dining room window, which had carelessly been left unlatched by a warrant. It is believed that only one robber entered the house, while another kept watch on the outside. The articles taken consisted of silverware and plate, a watch and $10 in cash. The dining room was completely stripped by the robbers, not a single piece being overlooked.

Chief Byrne today denied the truth of the story but admitted that there had been a burglary.

Superior Man Suicides in Michigan

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 20.—William M. Graham, a well-known attorney, who came here three years ago from Superior, Wis., shot himself early yesterday. He has been suffering from insomnia and nervous breakdown, and is believed to have been temporarily deranged.

Came From Sparta.
SUPERIOR, Wis., June 20.—William Graham was a pioneer attorney of West Superior, coming here from Sparta and forming a partnership with Carl Wilson. Mr. Graham was counted wealthy, but it is said that some heavy investments have recently turned out poorly. He carried life insurance of at least $20,000.

Attorney Graham was well known among the older attorneys of La Crosse.

$1,000 RECOVERED FROM AN OLD SAFE

NEENAH, Wis., June 20.—Workmen found buried in the ruins of the National hotel, destroyed by fire two years ago, the old office safe, which upon being opened was found to contain negotiable notes aggregating $1,000 in value. The notes were not even scorched. The presence of the safe in the ruins for such a length of time is explained by former Manager Geo. Reid, now of Minneapolis, who says he was under the impression that all the books and papers had been destroyed.

BERLIN FINANCIERS SAY BATTLE IN EAST IS IMMINENT

Neither Side Wants an Armistice at the Present Time

Berlin, June 20.—Trading on the bourse was listless, being affected by reports that a general engagement is beginning in Manchuria.

Washington, June 20.—Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, called at the White House to inform the president that the Japanese plenipotentiaries would be able to reach Washington the first part of August, if it was deemed desirable for them to be here by that time. The personnel of the mission has not yet been announced. When the president returned to the executive offices after receiving Takahira he found Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, awaiting him. The information brought by the minister was communicated to the ambassador, who is cabling his government to find out when the Russian mission will arrive. When this is known it will be possible to decide upon a date for the conference. The general belief is that it will convene about the middle of August.

Neither Party Wants an Armistice. Japan will not ask for an armistice, insisting that the initiative must come from Russia. The optimistic reports of the last few days received in St. Petersburg from the front have greatly raised the hopes of the Russians that a land victory is near, and the war party is opposed to the sending of a request for an armistice at this time. Japan is not at all desirous of a temporary cessation of hostilities, for between now and the beginning of the rainy season in August Oyama is expected to accomplish great achievements in Manchuria. However, after the plenipotentiaries have been appointed the informal discussion of an armistice will be resumed, and in case the president takes the initiative in suggesting a limited truce both belligerents will give the matter serious consideration.

Many Cities Want the Conference. During the past few days the president has received as many as 100 letters suggesting various cities in the country as desirable places for holding the conference. It can be said that the president will not permit himself to be drawn into the discussion of this subject and the government will not attempt to interfere in any way with the choice of the conferees of a place of holding their conferences. It is regarded as probable that this city will be at least the scene of the beginning and the ending of the conference, although the intervening sessions may be held elsewhere.

St. Petersburg, June 20.—The war party has by no means surrendered. On the contrary, backed by the military element, it is making a concerted effort to dissuade the emperor from concluding peace. Even with the two armies already clashing members of the war party are filling St. Petersburg and Peterhof with optimistic views, and Lieutenant General Linevitch and his lieutenants are reinforcing their arguments with rosy reports of the strategic situation. Many Russian correspondents at the front, evidently inspired from St. Petersburg, are flooding their papers with dispatches in the same strain.

The Novoe Vremya's correspondent, in his zeal against the conclusion of a humiliating peace, points to the hazards for the government in disbanding an army of half a million men without giving them a taste of success, and expresses the fear of dangerous consequences. The same correspondent, however, chronicles the fact that the rank and file are indifferent, and concludes: "If peace can be obtained without the cession of Russian territory or blood money, then peace by all means."

The dispatches from the front say that Linevitch has retaken Liaogang-wopeng and also Sumicheng. These dispatches are dated June 18. One from Lidlapudzy, Manchuria, dated June 19, says: "The Japanese are advancing from the center and west and are driving in the Russian screens south of Palitun. Farther west they turned the Russian extreme right at night-long fight. The Japanese force consisted of an infantry division, four batteries of artillery and thirty squadrons of cavalry. General Mischchenko's cavalry subsequently retrieved some of the lost ground."

"According to information received at headquarters the Japanese are moving northwest from Korea in three columns, which include 50,000 infantry and corresponding artillery. These columns are heading for Chutsami, Kmesan and Kentshan to complete the line of Oyama's army stretching from the Mongolia frontier to the Sea of Japan."

CZAR GIVES HIS PROMISE

Representative Government for Russia His "Unalterable Will." St. Petersburg, June 20.—The meeting between the emperor and the zemstvo deputation has brought forth a positive declaration from the czar that Russia is to have representative government. The deputation presented the address adopted by the all-Russian zemstvo gathering at Moscow, which address is one of the most remarkable ever sent to the czar in that it is absolutely devoid of the usual phrases of respect, and even goes so far as to arraign the sovereign himself. M. Petrunkovitch, president of the Moscow agricultural society, who has spent many years in exile as the result of his liberal views; M. Rodicheff and Prince Shakoffsky, known as the "anarchist prince," were greeted by the czar without the slightest evidence of imperial displeasure. The following is the text of the emperor's speech to the zemstvo delegation.

tion, after the address had been read: "I am happy to have heard you. I have no doubt you are guided by an ardent sentiment of love for the fatherland in addressing me directly. I have been grieved in my whole soul, with all my people, at the calamities which the war has brought upon Russia, and at all those which may still be feared, as well as at our internal disturbances.

"To dissipate your doubts I say that it is my sovereign and unalterable will that the admission of elected representatives to the works of state shall be regularly accomplished. I watch daily and devote myself to this work. You may announce that to all your friends in country and town.

"I am firmly convinced that Russia will emerge strengthened from the trials she is now enduring, and that there will be established soon, as formerly, a union between the emperor and all Russia—a communion between myself and the men of Russian soil. This union and communion must serve as a basis for the original principles of Russia. I have faith in your desire to help me in this task."

DINNERS AT THE STODDARD.

A party consisting of Messrs. and Mesdames C. J. Felber, Joseph Felber, J. P. Fetter and Miss Gussie Scott of Chicago formed a dinner party at the Stoddard Sunday evening.

In another party were Messrs. and Mesdames W. B. Tscherner, John Bayer, E. J. D. Evans and Mrs. Mollitor.

WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Kitty Guenther and Mr. I. S. Griffin of Viroqua took place at high noon at the parsonage of the German Reform church. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin left for Chicago where they will spend a few days before going to their home at Viroqua.

Mrs. G. C. Hixon left yesterday for Mankato where she will spend a week.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. David Austin left this morning for Fargo, N. D.

Miss Gussie Scott of Chicago is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. R. S. Reid entertained a dozen ladies at tea Saturday evening.

Mrs. Alfred James entertained about twenty friends at a coffee Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Jones of Mill street entertained a number of friends at a supper Monday evening. It was in honor of the birthday of the hostess and was a very pleasant affair.

Webber Russell who has been attending the Madison University returned home Saturday. After spending a couple of days with his mother he left last evening for Muskego, I. T., where he will join his father for a couple of months.

TORNADO CARRIES WRECK AND RUIN

BLUE MOUNDS, Wis., June 20.—

A young German farm hand, name unknown, was killed on the farm of Charles Collins while milking, over $150,000 damage was done to crops and farm buildings, and scores of head of stock were destroyed by a tornado that passed through Dane and Iowa counties and over the townships of Barneveld and Blue Mounds Sunday evening. Telephone and telegraph wires are down, and the full extent of the damage can only be estimated. The storm broke with wild fury following an extremely sultry day, and through a tract eight miles long and one to two miles wide the destruction of property was complete. Losses, as far as reported here are as follows:

John Malone—Barns destroyed, two cows killed, crop destroyed; loss, $1,500.

Morris Minix—Buildings destroyed, young stock killed; loss, $1,800.

John F. Himmelstein—Buildings all gone except house; loss, $2,200.

John Himmelstein, Sr.—Barns wrecked and cattle killed; loss, $3,000.

William Himmelstein—Barn torn to pieces and three cattle killed; loss $2,000.

Melville Frye and John Pryor—Barns destroyed, cattle, wagons, carriages, and machinery scattered over the prairie for a half mile; loss, $1,500.

Charles Collins—Barns totally wrecked, eight cows and a horse killed; loss, $2,500.

Arthur Willson—Barn and sheds wrecked; loss, $1,200.

The hail at Blue Mounds village broke all glass on the west and northwestern sides of buildings.

Rescuing parties were sent out from Blue Mounds, headed by William Dagenhart, Dr. Bancroft, Fred Allen, and Mr. Bussey to the different points and helped rescue cattle and people

TORNADO IN IOWA COUNTY

DODGEVILLE, Wis., June 20.—One of the worst wind storms of the season passed over here Sunday evening, unroofing buildings and doing great damage to crops. It is reported that a tornado struck Barneveld, fifteen miles east of here, killing one man and destroying many buildings.

HEAVY RAINFALL AT ARENA

ARENA, Wis., June 20.—During a severe electrical storm Sunday night lightning struck the high school building here, doing considerable damage to the plastering and one side of the structure. A barn belonging to J. Oleason was also struck by lightning. The tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway were badly washed out west of here.

CROPS RUINED AT HIGHLAND

HIGHLAND, Wis., June 20.—A severe wind storm with hail Sunday night wrecked over a dozen barns and as many windmills, besides shattering windows in dwellings. North of this city, the path of the storm was over two miles wide and hail piled up over a foot high. Crops are entirely ruined.

DAMAGE AT DODGEVILLE

DODGEVILLE, Wis., June 20.—A wind storm passed over here doing great damage to crops.

SAYERS IS PRONOUNCED NOT GUILTY

GREEN BAY, Wis., June 20.—Maurice Sayers of Milwaukee, charged with engaging in a prize fight as a principal, was released from custody yesterday afternoon after a preliminary examination in the municipal court. The dismissal was ordered after a dozen witnesses called by the state had testified that the Sayers-Mowatt bout put on as the windup of the boxing show held under the auspices of the Green Bay Eagles during the prize convention last week was not a prize fight within the meaning of the statute, but a scientific boxing exhibition. Without exception, the witnesses all gave testimony decidedly favorable to the defendant, and District Attorney Kittell, who instigated the prosecution, gave up the case in disgust.

When the case was noted the judge instructed the sheriff to destroy the five warrants issued for the other principals in the show. It is stated that there will be no further attempt to prosecute either principals or promoters.

An amusing and interesting feature of the hearing was the testimony given by Sheriff Van Veghel, who admitted that he had never before witnessed a performance within a squared circle, his story was not a flattering testimonial for Sayers or Mowatt as fighters, but it was a good "boost" from the view point of Sayers as a defendant.

Mayor Minahan delivered a strong "roast" for those who opposed the bouts, and was a good witness for the defendant, although called by the state.

SPLENDORS OF THE DURBAR

Splendors attract the eye of all mankind quite as much today as in the ancient times. Man is vain and admires more his own handiwork than he does the choicest creations of nature. The precious stone is lustreless till man's cutting and polishing transforms it into a glittering gem. Every time man places his foot upon the ground he touches a creation more ancient than the ruins of the most remote antiquity, but a structure of his own creation, if no more than a single century old, halts him and his interest is aroused. These things are true now—they have been so for all time.

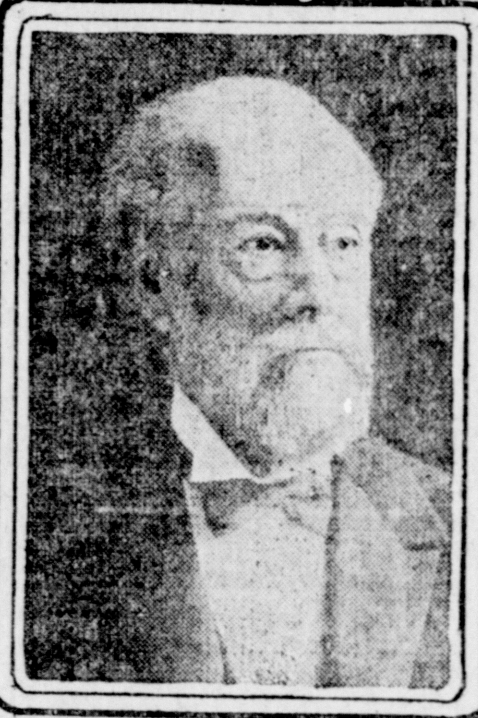

The earliest records of man's thoughts and deeds teem with accounts of his displays of riches and power. Traditional splendors are never those of nature, but man. Some are invested with a glamor antiquity lends. Others of more modern being have been minutely described. With the aid of tradition and history and imagination some fairly adequate idea of ancient splendors may be formed, and then—all pale into insignificance before the glories of the gorgeous Durbar at Delhi.

This surpassing spectacle will be reproduced in simulation as a prelude to the performance given this year in the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth. Preparations for this mimic presentation were begun immediately after the Durbar took place in January, 1903. It is scarcely necessary to say anything about the magnificent manner in which the superb splendors will be presented. The wealth and enterprise of this uniquely greatest establishment in the world is sufficient to supply all the ponderous paraphernalia, massive material and dazzling detail necessary to make of it the most sublime spectacle of panoramic pageantry that has ever been seen in this country and only surpassed elsewhere on earth by the very Durbar itself. It may not be described; it must be seen. It may be seen when the Barnum & Bailey Show visits this city on July 5th.

SENATOR PLATT

SEN. PLATT OF CONNECTICUT

(New York Herald Special.) WASHINGTON, June 20.—After four weeks' illness of pneumonia United States Senator Orville H. Platt died. Senator Platt's illness dates from his return to his residence here from Hartford, March 21, when he attended the funeral of the man who for years was his colleague in the United States senate, General Joseph R. Hawley. The day of Senator Hawley's funeral was chilly and stormy and Senator Platt caught a severe cold which developed into pneumonia.

Rapid Development of Telephone Service in Wisconsin

Telephone development in the state of Wisconsin is growing by leaps and bounds. The people of this state are beginning to realize as never before the many advantages of having a telephone in the home and at their places of business. These advantages are increased with each additional telephone installed, by increasing the number of persons accessible. The Wisconsin Telephone company already has upwards of 16,000 telephones in use in the city of Milwaukee alone, and upwards of 40,000 additional telephones in service throughout the state outside of Milwaukee. The fact that this company has some 22,000 miles of toll wire running in every direction, connecting the principal cities and towns, shows how thoroughly the state is covered, and that practically every community is within reach of the telephone. Since an average of at least five persons use each telephone, this means that 280,000 persons in the state are now directly accessible by telephone.

The Wisconsin Telephone company is now giving special attention to the development of rural or farm line service. Hundreds of farmers are being connected up with their market town by telephone. This means a great saving to them of time and energy, by enabling them to transact a great deal of their business without the necessity of hitching and driving to town.

So great has been the development of the Wisconsin Telephone company's system, and so many are the advantages of having one of their telephones (so many places, firms and persons being immediately accessible), that the question is no longer: Can I afford to put in a telephone? but rather: Can I, in this day and age, afford not to have telephonic connection with the progressive people of the state?

SAYS LIFE CAN BE CREATED ARTIFICIALLY

London, June 20.—According to The Daily Chronicle experiments conducted for six years in the Cavendish laboratory at Cambridge university by J. Butler Burke, a young professor who for a long time worked with Professor Thomson, have almost certainly demonstrated the possibility of spontaneous generation.

By means of radium and sterilized bouillon placed together in a test tube Professor Burke obtained cultures presenting many appearances of vitality, such as growth and sub-division.

MORE TROUBLE IS BREWING OVER CANAL

Washington, June 20.—A story connected with Chief Engineer John F. Wallace's return to Washington, which indicates that there is friction in the canal zone, is current in this city. Wallace will arrive in Washington Thursday, and it is expected that he will make a statement which will throw light on the situation. No official confirmation of the story is obtainable, and canal commission officials here will not discuss it.

The substance of the report is that when Wallace was made a member of the canal commission at $7,500 a year additional compensation besides his $17,500 a year as chief engineer, he was told that in the capacity of chief engineer he would have unlimited sway. Now, the story goes, he finds his rule disputed in some important particulars. It is alleged that this is one of the reasons he is returning to Washington. He will probably see the president Friday.

BURNED AT HER DOCK

Collingwood, Ont., June 20.—The steamer City of Collingwood, owned by the North Shore Navigation Company, of Collingwood, and valued at $80,000, was destroyed by fire at her dock here and two deckhands were burned to death. The flames spread so rapidly that the officers and crew had time to escape only in their night clothes. Several had to jump overboard into the bay, where they were rescued by firemen.

The flames spread to the freight sheds of the Grand Trunk railway and these also were burned before the fire was brought under control. The entire contents of the docks were lost. The City of Collingwood was built in 1893 and after taking a party to the World fair in Chicago she was put on the Georgian Bay and Lake Superior tourist route.

John Doe X His Mark

A man's mark is his honor. It stands for him and he stands for it. It's the old Saxon way of signifying good intentions.

The right to be protected in the exclusive use of a trade mark has been long recognized by the common law and enforced by the chancery courts of England and this country.

The Government puts its mark on a bond to give it value.

The National Biscuit Company puts its trade mark in red and white on each end of a package of biscuit, crackers and wafers to distinguish these products and to guarantee the quality, and it does.

To more clearly comprehend the real value of this trade mark, try packages of BUTTER THIN BISCUIT and LEMON SNAPS.

MORE LIGHT==LESS MONEY.

A saving of 50 Per Cent in store lighting is well worth considering. The Nernst Lamp as compared with the ordinary incandescent or arc lamp gives double the amount of light for the same current bill. The enterprising merchant realizes the great advertising value of a brilliantly lighted store. The Nernst Lamp can be used for this purpose to better advantage than any other illuminant.
